

OATHS OF OFFICE

The oath of office for any elected or appointed county official may be administered by the county mayor, the county clerk, a judge of any court of record in the county, or the current or a retired judge of the general sessions court. T.C.A. § 8-18-109.

All elected county officials and the appointed officers such as clerk and master, and deputies to these officers, are required to take an oath of office that actually consists of two oaths: the constitutional oath and an oath for the particular office or fidelity oath (TENN. CONST. Art. X, Sec. 1).

The following is a combination fidelity and constitutional oath:

I do solemnly swear that I will perform with fidelity the duties of the office to which I have been elected, and which I am about to assume. I do solemnly swear to support the constitutions of Tennessee and the United States and to faithfully perform the duties of the office of _____ for _____ County, Tennessee.

The simple constitutional oath and fidelity oath are taken by those who do not have a more specific oath prescribed by law (T.C.A. § 8-18-111). This basic oath is used upon entering the following offices:

County Clerk (or deputy county clerk by substituting the word "appointed" for "elected")

County Register (or deputy register by substituting the word "appointed" for "elected")

Chief administrative officer of the county highway department
